band bio

Formerly of Kansas City's favorite '80s tribute band Molly's Crush, this duo decided to strip down their favorite tunes of the last few decades to just an acoustic guitar or piano and a couple of voices. Winebox performs a soulful mix of torch songs, classic/modern rock, pop, and folk, along with a handful of originals that feature backing tracks for a more dynamic sound.

With a 1600-watt P.A. and no stage amps, they're able to accommodate any venue with total volume control, from rock shows to dinner crowds, public or private engagements, as well as guest musicians.

Shannon Lipps works as a jazz vocalist in KC, performing at the Phoenix and Jardine's with The Steve Gray Band. She is currently recording an album of standards and contemporary hits to be released fall 2012. She stays on the creative edge, writing lyrics and co-composing for original works with The Ambient Stem. When not working as an artist, she's busy running her own business, Touch of Tranquility Massage & Bodyworks, as an LMT offering rehabilitative care and producing natural and handmade products and accessories.

Gordon Highland is a 20-year veteran of local bands performing material from modern rock to 80s pop to glam metal, as well as a published author and full-time video director. Offstage, he produces the instrumental tracks for Winebox's original songs in his home studio. Visit him at gordonhighland.com.
